

Legacy Giving

Supporting Scotland's Young Musicians for Generations to Come

What is a Legacy Gift?

A legacy gift is a donation left in your Will that helps ensure Scotland's young people continue to access high-quality pipe band tuition, performance opportunities, and the sense of belonging that music brings. After providing for loved ones, many supporters choose to leave a gift that reflects their values and the traditions they care about.

Why Leave a Legacy to SSPDT?

- Sustained impact — Your gift supports long-term programmes that help pupils grow in confidence, wellbeing, teamwork, and cultural pride.
- Protecting living heritage — You help keep Scotland's piping and drumming traditions thriving in schools and communities.
- Creating opportunity — Legacy gifts expand access for young people who would otherwise miss out.
- A lasting contribution — Your support strengthens a charity dedicated to fairness, inclusion, and youth development.

Types of Legacy Gifts

- Residuary gift — A percentage of your estate after other commitments are met.
- Pecuniary gift — A fixed sum of money.
- Specific gift — An item or asset.
- Life interest gift — Allowing someone to benefit during their lifetime, with SSPDT receiving the gift afterwards.

Wording for Your Will

Your solicitor may find the following helpful:

"I leave [amount/percentage] to the Scottish Schools Pipes and Drums Trust (SSPDT), Scottish Charity Number SC041232, to be used for its general charitable purposes."

Letting Us Know

You do not need to tell us, but if you choose to, it allows us to thank you properly and plan future programmes with confidence.

How to Get in Touch

If you would like to discuss leaving a legacy or request further information, please contact our office team at info@sspdt.org or by phone. We are always happy to help.
